JUDGE ZAGEL
MAGISTRATE JUDGE SCHENKIER

Jade,

I don't know if you received my email last week, but things have taken a turn for the worse. I have been trying to email and call Scott for a while now and haven't gotten any response. I noticed today on overperform that my rating was a 5!!! How is that possible with all that I have accomplished last quarter? The review simply states missed one or more goals and did not meet daily objectives. That's all, no detail on what he is referring to. Now you know that I was never given any goals this quarter, in fact that was one of my biggest complaints. In our follow up phone conversation with Scott he said that he doesn't want to restrict his group to a project, because it will not allow them to grow technically.

I have documented the several attempts that I have made for simple things such as job descriptions, goals, etc. I have always had issues surrounding my military duty. It isn't any different. I am now an overperformer and my training originally bringing problems to me.

I have to report back to duty today and wanted to make you aware of what was happening. When we were chatting in the hallway right after Christmas I wanted to tell you right there everything that was going on, but I made a promise to you that I would stick it out for a quarter and see if there were any changes. Well the only change is that it is apparent that I am being forced out of CB and my Military Duty is just the time for it to happen. Using rehabilitation and my military duty as an excuse for a rating of 5 is unethical and inappropriate. I am coming to you and asking for your help. You have only one real resolution to this matter. Please

Michael
